Corriders Named Regional President of Pathfinder Bank's Syracuse Market

OSWEGO, New York (February 7th, 2018) – Calvin L. Corriders has been named Regional President of Pathfinder Bank's Syracuse Market, according to Tom Schneider, President and CEO.

"On behalf of the Board of Directors and all members of our banking team, we are proud to announce this appointment and promotion," said Schneider. "With over three decades of experience in community banking, Calvin has consistently and successfully embodied the vision and values that Pathfinder Bank strives for and will continue to do so within the greater Syracuse Market. With his leadership, business acumen and commitment to our mission, Calvin's role will be instrumental in the execution of our strategic plan and continued growth."

"With this change in title, Corriders possesses the authority to act on behalf of the bank to continue to build trust in our local community by partnering to collaboratively solve the challenges of residents, businesses and local government in order to strengthen the economic, social, cultural and civic fabric of our communities. This is how we view our role and our purpose as a local community bank. Calvin Corriders has been doing this in the greater Syracuse market long before our growing presence, and we are proud that he now does it in our name with our full ability to use local knowledge and decision-making to build and engage." Schneider added.

Corriders holds a Bachelor of Science degree from SUNY Brockport in Business Administration with a concentration in Marketing Management and resides in Syracuse, New York, with his wife, Sandra.

Corriders is a lifelong resident of the City of Syracuse and has garnered numerous community, banking, and service awards for his volunteer and professional work over the years. He is a former member of the Syracuse City School District Board of Education and has served as both the Board's President and Vice President over his 14 years of service, as well as the Budget and Finance committee chair, the Curriculum committee chair, and the Facilities committee chair.

Calvin currently serves on several boards such as CNY's Regional Advisory Board of Excellus Blue Cross/Blue Shield, Home Headquarters, Inc., Syracuse Community Health Center, and Upstate Minority Economic Alliance. He is also a member of the 100 Black Men of Syracuse and Joint School Construction Board; where he is responsible for the administering, renovations and financing of the educational buildings for the Syracuse City School District.
